

Christmas – Is it Christian?

Discovering the deception.

THE CELEBRATION OF CHRIST'S BIRTH BY THE EARLY CHURCH

The celebration of Christ's birth in the early church ...

- In the first 200 years of Christian history, no mention is made of the calendar date of Jesus' birth. Not until the year 336AD do we find the first mention of a celebration of His birth.
- The Church fathers considered most worthy was the date of His death, the date of His birth was considered insignificant.

The celebration of Christ's birth in the early church ...

- The Encyclopedia Americana explains, "Christmas... was, according to many authorities, not celebrated in the first centuries of the Christian church, as the Christian usage in general was to celebrate the death of remarkable persons rather than their birth..." (1944 edition, "Christmas").

Pre-Christian background

Dies Natalis Solis Invicti

- Dies Natalis Solis Invicti means
“The birthday of the unconquered Sun.”
The use of the title Sol Invictus allowed several solar deities to be worshipped collectively, including Elah-Gabal, a Syrian sun god; Sol, the god of Emperor Aurelian; and Mithras, a soldiers' god of Persian origin.

The Babylonian & Egyptian root

- "The real origin of Christmas goes back to ancient Babylon. In Egypt, it was always believed that the son of Isis (Egyptian name for "Queen of Heaven") was born December 25th.
- Semiramis also bore the title "Queen of Heaven" - and she was Nimrod's mother.
- Paganism celebrated this famous birthday (25th December) over most of the known world for centuries before the birth of Christ."

HOW DID CHRISTMAS
COME TO BE CELEBRATED ON THE 25TH DECEMBER?

How Did Christmas Come to Be Celebrated on 25th December?

- Roman pagans first introduced the holiday of Saturnalia, a week long period of lawlessness celebrated between December 17-25.
- During this period, Roman courts were closed, and Roman law dictated that no one could be punished for damaging property or injuring people during the week-long celebration.

How Did Christmas Come to Be Celebrated on 25th December?

This (Saturnalia) festival's observance included:

- human sacrifice,
- intoxication;
- going from house to house while singing naked;
- rape
- and other sexual license

The Real practice of Saturnalia...

How Did Christmas Come to Be Celebrated on 25th December?

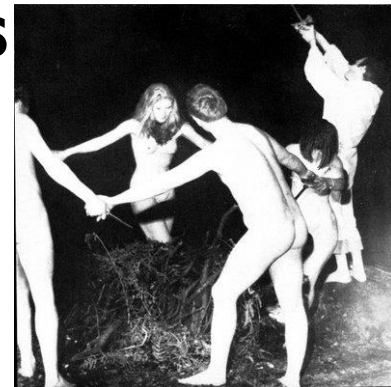

- In the 4th century CE, Christianity imported the Saturnalia festival hoping to take the pagan masses in with it.
- Christian leaders succeeded in converting to Christianity large numbers of pagans by promising them that they could continue to celebrate the Saturnalia as Christians
- The first mention of a Nativity feast appears in the Philocalian calendar, a Roman document from 354 CE, which lists December 25th as the day of Jesus' birth.

How Did Christmas Come to Be Celebrated on 25th December?

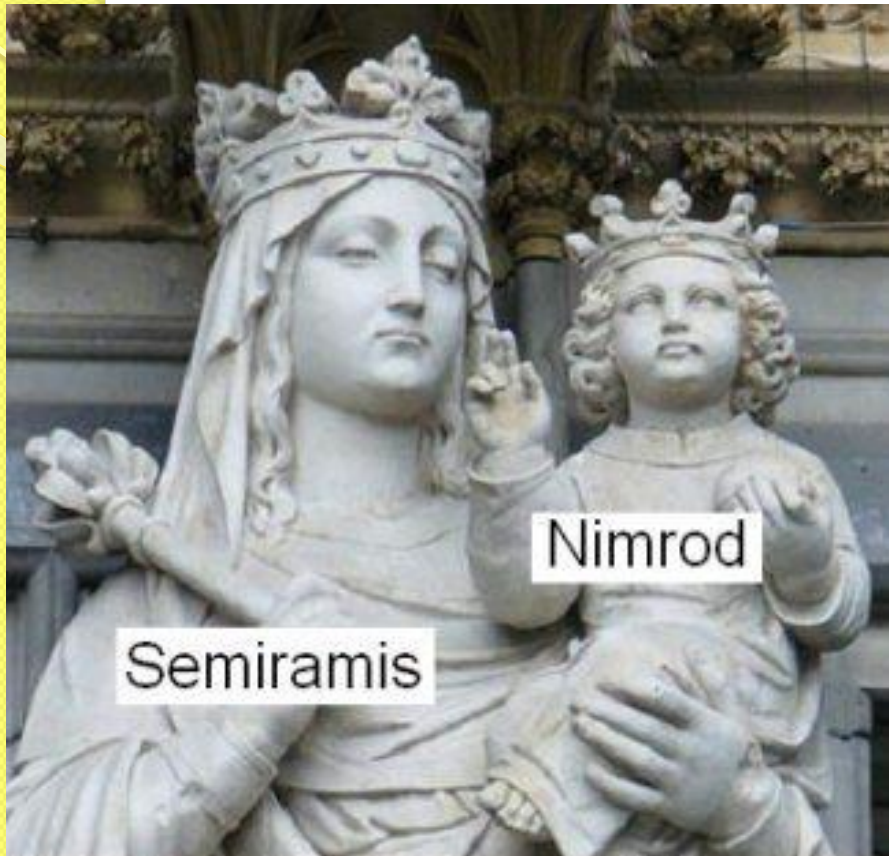

The earliest Christmas holidays were celebrated by drinking, sexual indulgence, and singing naked in the streets (a precursor of modern caroling)

Saturnalia carnival customs intentionally revived by Pope Paul II of the Catholic Church in 1466 when he forced Jews to race naked through the streets of the city after being richly fed, to amuse the roman citizens.

Semiramis - Queen of Heaven

Semiramis - Mother of god

Many False Gods - Whose Birthday was "December 25th" as "NIMROD"

- “December 25th - not only was Mithra, the sun-god of Mithraism, said to be born at this time of the year, but Osiris, Horus, Hercules, Bacchus, Adonis, Jupiter, Tammuz, and other sun-gods were also supposedly born at what is today called the ‘Christmas’ season, *but what in reality is the winter solstice!”

- - Doane, p.474; - "The Two Babylons; Alexander Hislop, p.93.

Many False Gods - Whose Birthday was "December 25th"

- "The winter solstice (December) was the time at which all the sun-gods from Osiris to Jupiter and Mithra had celebrated their (birthdays) - the celebration being adorned with the pine tree of Adonis, the holly of Saturn, and the mistletoe (from pagan Druids) tapers(candles) represented the kindling of the newborn sun-god's fire..."

-Man and His Gods, p.201.

Your fire / sun gods ...

- Virtually every civilization has a fire/sun god. The Egyptians (and sometimes Romans) called him Vulcan. The Greeks named him Kronos, as did the Phoenicians—but they also called him Saturn. The Babylonians called him Tammuz (as Nimrod, resurrected in the person of his son), Molech or Baal (as did the Druids). These were all simply the various names for Nimrod. Nimrod was considered the father of all the Babylonian gods.

The planet Saturn was later named after him because, among all of the planets, with its rings and bright red colour, it best represented the god of fire!

"NIMROD" - The LORD of Christmas

- "Nimrod started the great worldly apostasy from God that has prevailed until now. Nimrod married his own mother, Semiramis. After Nimrod's death, his so-called mother-wife, Semiramis, propagated the evil doctrine of the survival of Nimrod as a spirit being. She claimed a full-grown evergreen tree sprang overnight from a dead tree stump, which symbolized the springing forth unto new life of the dead Nimrod. On each anniversary of his birth, she claimed, Nimrod would visit the evergreen tree and leave gifts upon it. December 25th, was the birthday of Nimrod. This is the real origin of the Christmas tree."

Worship of the tree

- Just as early Christians recruited Roman pagans by associating Christmas with the Saturnalia, so too worshippers of the Asheira cult and its offshoots were recruited by the Church sanctioning “Christmas Trees”.
- Pagans had long worshipped trees in the forest, or brought them into their homes and decorated them, and this observance was adopted and painted with a Christian veneer by the Church.

The Pagan tree

- "The Christmas tree, now so common among us, was equally common in pagan Rome and pagan Egypt. The Christmas tree is Nimrod - the slain god of Babylon, come to life again."
- -The Two Babylons, Alexander Hislop

○ Christmas tree ...

- "So our Christmas tree has tremendous meaning, but not a Christian meaning. The yule log is the dead Nimrod, human ruler of ancient Babylon, who was eventually deified as the sun incarnate, and hence a god. The Christmas tree is mystical Tammuz, the slain god come to life again."
- -After Armageddon -Chapter 4, Where do we get our ideas? by John A. Sarkett

The 'No compromise' Slogan ...

- "The Roman Pagans celebrate the birthday of their child-god on 25th December.
- The Catholic Church proclaimed the same day to be the birthday of Jesus. So Pagans could worship the Catholic - Madonna and child.
- The Madonna and child was seen as a manifestation of the Babylonian Queen of Heaven (Semiramis) and her reincarnated son (Nimrod).
- The Pagans made no compromises, they didn't need to, they just continued their Pagan worship within the church."

The "Entire" Earth is Lying in the Power of Ancient Babylon and the spell cast by Nimrod and his mother.

Considering the disgraceful and licentious rites with which the cult was celebrated, it is no wonder that Ezekiel should have taken the vision of the women weeping for Tammuz in the temple as one of the greatest abominations that could defile the Holy House.

The Ways of the Heathen ...

Be not dismayed at the signs of heaven

² Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. ³ For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. ⁴ They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. ⁵ They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

THE NEW-BORN son-god's FIRE

newborn sun-god's fire

- Molech

Moloch, the ancient pagan God of child sacrifice.

Deu 12:31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

Moloch Worship

- Moloch, which was made of brass; and they heated him from his lower parts; and his hands being stretched out, and made hot, they put the child between his hands, and it was burnt; when it vehemently cried out; but the priests beat a drum, that the father might not hear the voice of his son, and his heart might not be moved.
- The 12th century rabbi Rashi, commenting on Jeremiah 7:31 stated:

Connecting December 25th and the origin of Human Sacrifice ...

- Thus, the 25th was considered the birthday of the sun to the ancients. Each year, as the sun seemingly halted in the sky, sun worshipers truly desired to entice the sun to come back. It “dismayed” them to see the sun “stall” in the sky. Human sacrifice began to be practiced with the belief that it “re-energized” the sun with life. One of the ancient European names of the December 25th holiday, we now call Christmas was Midwinterblot, meaning “midwinter blood” or “midwinter sacrifice”.
- Evidence is pretty clear that human sacrifice and the winter solstice go hand in hand. William Sansom states that human sacrifice actually originated during the winter solstice, which we now call Christmas.
- William Sansom: "A Book of Christmas,"

The Worship of Molech

What Molech worship is present in our day?

Surely nobody is still performing human sacrifices, and especially child sacrifices, today?

Such a barbaric practice can't exist in our civilized world, can it?

A Detestable thing

- The vast majority of all abortions are sacrificed to the gods of self and mammon (money).
[See Philippians 3:19 & Matthew 6:24.]
- These are 'idols' of worship just as surely as Molech was.

ABORTION-THE PAGAN WORSHIP OF MOLECH RETURNS

- The pagan worship of Molech returns in the act of abortion especially the chemical abortions that burns the skin of the unborn child, babies are killed in ways that are too painful to discuss.

Passing seed through the fire ...

Out of reverence for Kronos whenever they seek to obtain some great favour, vow one of their children, burning it as a sacrifice to the deity if they are especially eager to gain success.

• Mosca P.G., Child Sacrifice in Caananite and Israelite Religion, Ph.D. dissertation, Harvard University, 1975, p. 22.

Lev 18 vs.21

And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

Abortion is called a “choice”. The choice is the killing of a small human.

- The abortionist inserts forceps into the uterus and grasps one of the baby’s legs, positioning the baby feet first, face down (breech position). The child’s body is then pulled out of the birth canal except for the head which is too large. The baby is still alive, and probably kicking and flailing his legs and arms. The abortionist hooks his fingers over the baby’s shoulders. He then jams blunt tipped surgical scissors into the base of the skull and spreads the tips apart to enlarge the wound. A suction catheter is inserted into the baby’s skull and the brain is sucked out. The skull collapses and the baby’s head passes easily through the cervix.

GIVING OF GIFTS

Giving of Gifts ...

- "Gift Giving - during the Roman festival of Saturnalia, gifts were given as good luck emblems and houses were decorated with greenery. The early Christians, however, frowned on this pagan ritual, and would have no part of it."
- - Christmas Traditions & Trivia | 1999 HFCWillcox

Gifts or Sigillaria?

- “The giving of presents, particularly candles and dolls, called Sigillaria also derives from the insistent origin of human sacrifice at this time of year.”
- “Winter solstice” traditions included giving dolls to children. Scholars believe that the term doll is derived from the word idol and may specifically refer to the “dolls” or clay effigies that were placed under evergreen trees in the home, imitating the actual sacrifice of children made under a grove of evergreen trees. The winter solstice was celebrated with candles, which represented “energizing the sun with sacrificial fires.” So after all is said and done and every ritual examined closely... sun worship seems to be “the reason for the season”.

The origin of exchanging gifts ...

- “The interchange of presents between friends is a like characteristic of Christmas and the Saturnalia, and must have been adopted by Christians from the pagans, as the admonition of Tertullian plainly shows”

- The Bibliotheca Sacra (Vol. 12, pp. 153-155).

WHAT SAYS THE SECULAR COURT?

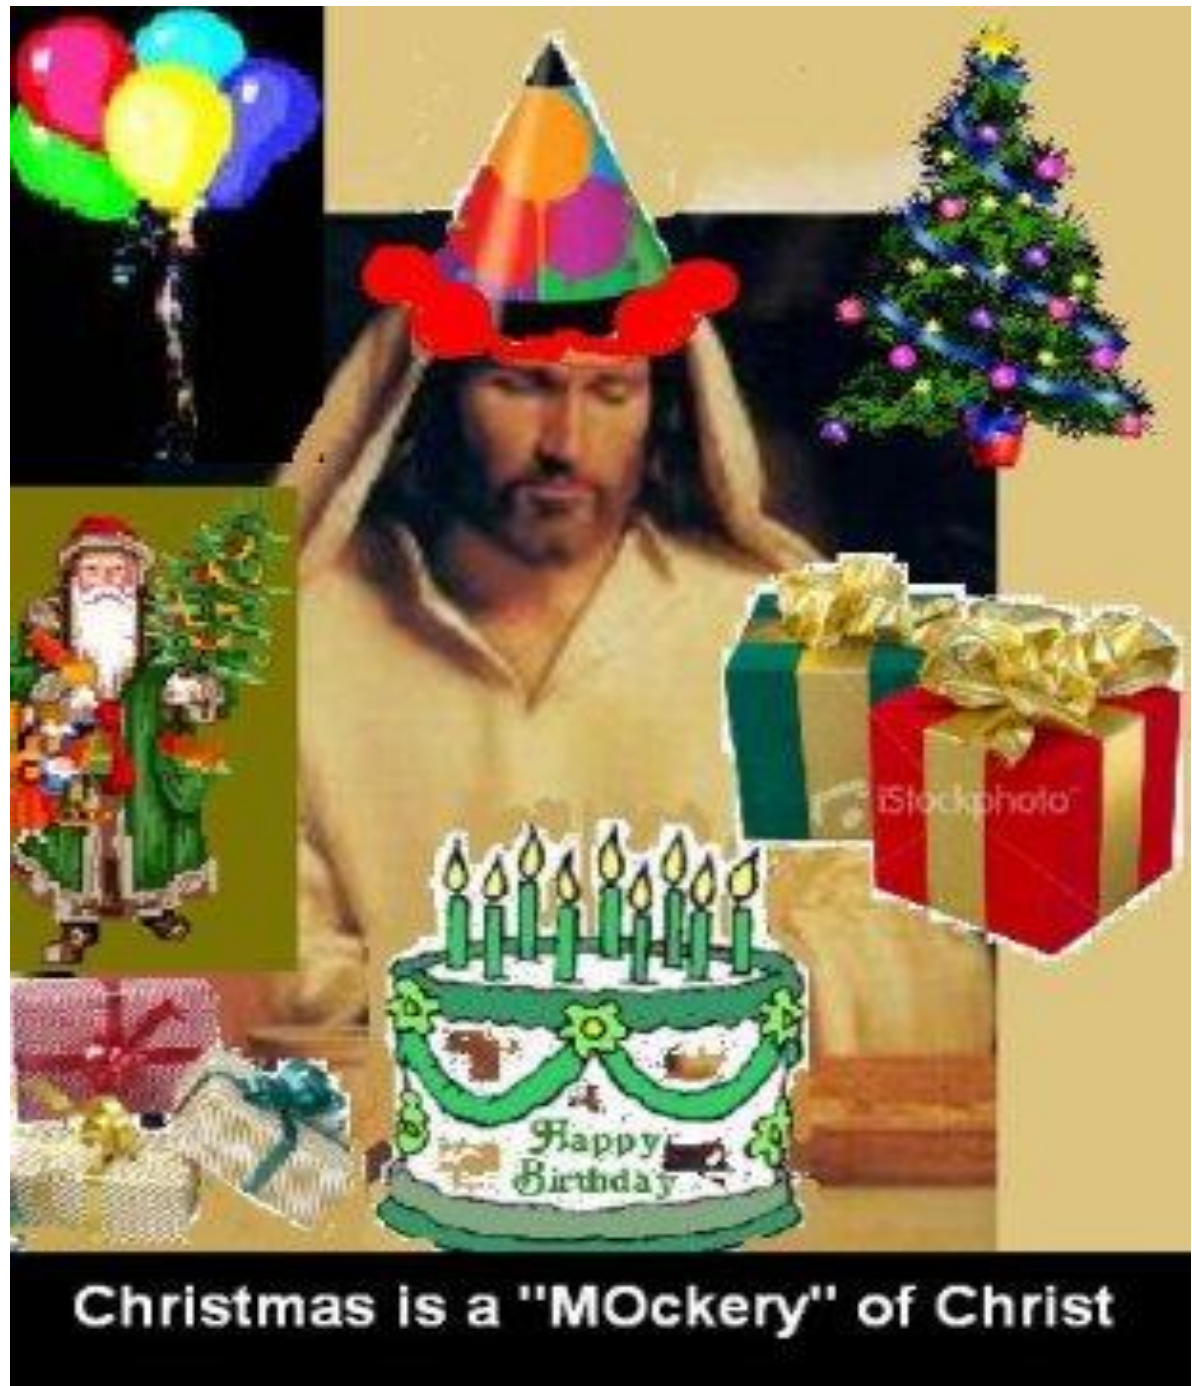

Even The Courts Decree ...

- In 1990, the Solon, Ohio (a Cleveland suburb) school board banned all nativity and other Christmas scenes on any school property because they felt it violated the separation of church and state.
- They were challenged in court when outraged parents opposed them, feeling that Christmas was being stolen from their children and the community.
- The board lost the case! The parents contended that Christmas was a worldwide tradition that was not part of, and transcended, religion. It was deemed to be secular—a part of virtually all cultures worldwide.

Even The Courts Decree ...

- The court decision affirmed that Christmas has no Christian roots!
- The court concluded that Christmas-keeping and manger scenes could remain because they are not really part of either Christianity or religion—but prayer and Bible reading, which are, must remain excluded from schools! What a remarkable admission indeed!
